DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

A telephone call was made to Applicants' Attorney, Edward Etkin (#37,824) on December 19, 2005, to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-15, drawn to a method for providing commercial services using a mobile communication device, comprising a single service control system and selection by the user of a service offered by a service provider classified in class 705, subclass 26.
 - II. Claims 16-23, drawn to a method for enabling the purchase of parking time and the policing of purchased time in a regulated parking lot through a parking control system utilizing a wireless mobile communication device, classified in class 705, subclass 1.
 - III. Claims 24-28, drawn to a system for providing commercial services using a mobile communication device, comprising at least one service system controlled by a service provider, and a distinct control system in communication with said service system, classified in class 705, subclass 26.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed in invention I, classified in class 705, subclass 26, does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the combination is not directed to controlling paid timed parking, with all of the monitoring and attribution of enforcement penalties attendant thereto. The subcombination of invention II, classified in class 705, subclass 1, has separate utility such as for use in the control of said paid timed parking. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are operated in different ways. Invention I is directed to a method that enables the user to select a service offered by a service provider through a service control system. Invention III is a system directed to at least one service system under the control of a service provider, allowing the service provider to offer a service to at least one user through a control system. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for Group I is not required for Group III, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Inventions II and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are operated differently and are directed toward a method and system that operate in completely different ways. Invention II is directed to a method for allowing the purchase of parking time in a pay parking space and the monitoring and attribution of attendant enforcement penalties, classified in class 705, subclass 1. Invention III, classified in class 705, subclass 26, is directed to a system under control of a service provider that allows the service provider to offer a service to a user through a control system. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
